Bio

Ambassador For God

Spiritual And Humanitarian Company

Dr Gamet's background spans and includes expertise in such areas as communications, marketing, business and finance.

Dr. Gamet was one of the first three hundred Marines to go to the first Gulf War in 1990 -1991, specializing in Logistics and Communications.

He parlayed his expertise into consulting for such giants as the McCaw Brothers and was responsible for bringing Cellular One, Nextel, and CLEAR Internet to market which were then sold to AT&T and Sprint respectively.

While completing his Theology degree, Dr Gamet became a Head Pastor where he spent much of his time helping the homeless. Seeing that no one, not even the government, were helping them out of their situation he committed himself to finding solutions. He became a highly sought-after consultant for million and billion dollar companies.

Over the past 30 years Dr. Gamet has researched over 10,000 companies, across multiple industries in his pursuit of evening the playing field, from nutrition to finance, real estate to insurance, crypto to clean energy.

Dr Gamet received his doctorate in Ministry and Divinity. His commitment to serving all people culminated in the creation of his nonprofit, SHARING, a 508 (c)(1)(a) spiritual and humanitarian organization. SHARING provides free education in financial literacy, business creation, technology, health, and humanitarianism.
